SECTION 1 – INTRODUCTION

1.01 Human Resource Management

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to develop, implement and maintain comprehensive Human Resource Management Policies and Procedures.

Objective

1. To promote understanding of the terms and conditions, the requirements and rules governing the employees of the Town of Yarmouth.
2. To ensure consistent, fair, and equitable treatment of all employees in all departments by the consistent application of these policies and procedures.
3. To ensure that human resource policies will be updated on an ongoing basis in order to reflect changes in society, legislation, and economic circumstances.
4. To outline responsibilities and working relationships throughout the Town of Yarmouth.

Details

5. The Chief Administrative Officer (or designate) will:
 - a. Have overall responsibility for the consistent application and interpretation of the Human Resource Policies.
 - b. Develop and maintain a comprehensive human resource policy manual and supporting procedures which will serve as the official guide in handling human resource management matters.
 - c. Identify necessary revisions to the human resource policies and in consultation with other managerial staff, make recommendations for changes or additions.
 - d. Ensure the implementation and application of the Town of Yarmouth human resource policies and establish a method which will facilitate employee awareness and understanding of approved policies.
6. Management staff and all other Town of Yarmouth employees will:
 - a. Develop a good working knowledge of the human Resource policies and procedures.
 - b. Apply these policies and procedures in an equitable and fair manner.
 - c. Encourage awareness of the Town of Yarmouth human resource policies and procedures.
7. General Provisions
 - a. If clarification of a policy or procedure is required, staff shall seek clarification from their immediate supervisor.

- b. The policies set forth in this manual shall be consistent with federal and provincial law and with the policies and bylaws of the Town of Yarmouth.
- c. If any policy or procedure in this manual is in conflict with a Town of Yarmouth collective agreement, provincial, or federal law, the applicable law or collective agreement will take precedent.

8. Authority

- a. Municipal Government Act provides that:
 - i. Section 47 (1) - Council shall make decisions in the exercise of its power and duties by resolution, by policy or bylaw.
 - ii. Section 48 (3) – In addition to matters specified in this Act or another Act of the Legislature, the council may adopt policies on any matter that the council considers conducive to the effective management of the municipality.

 - c. Files shall be immediately returned to the secure storage location once viewing is complete.
 6. No employee may alter, remove, copy, or photograph any document in their personnel file unless authorized by the Human Resource Coordinator or Chief Administrative Officer.

4.03 Performance Review

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to ensure that staff are provided with timely and effective feedback on their performance by formal and informal performance reviews.

Objectives

1. To clearly define and communicate the formal and informal performance review process.
2. To ensure a logical and clear approach is followed when conducting annual performance reviews.
3. That job-related skills, knowledge, and behaviours are consistently evaluated and scheduled compensation is considered.

Details

4. During the first year of employment, new full-time and part-time staff shall have at minimum two (2) formal performance reviews. First, at the end of the probationary period and a review at the one-year anniversary of employment.
5. After staff have completed one year of employment, performance reviews shall occur annually thereafter.
6. Annual performance reviews shall be completed by March 31st each year.

Responsibilities

7. The Human Resource Coordinator shall:

- a. Oversee the implementation and maintenance of Performance Review Policy 4.03 throughout the Town of Yarmouth, with the assistance of, and in consultation with Management employees and any other appropriate staff.
 - b. Monitor the effectiveness of the performance review process and recommend any necessary changes to the Chief Administrative Officer.
8. Management employees or designate shall:
- a. Administer and coordinate performance reviews within their respective departments.
 - b. Provide a report of necessary follow up actions to the Human Resource Coordinator and Chief Administrative Officer resulting from the performance review.
 - c. Provide all original copies of performance review documentation to the Human Resource Coordinator for filing in staff personnel files.
 - d. Notify staff and provide clarification on any changes to this policy.
 - e. It is the responsibility of Management employees to set reasonable performance goals, standards, and deadlines with employees in a clear and timely manner.

4.04 Corrective Action

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to establish a system of policies and procedures that will address any disorderly conduct of staff and the fair and consistent treatment of all employees.

Objectives

1. Encourage good employee/employer relations by providing fair and consistent treatment of all employees throughout the organization.
2. Ensure that employees are aware of their obligations and the consequences of violating those policies.
3. Ensure that employee misconduct is dealt with in an appropriate manner.

Procedure

4. Corrective Action addresses staffing issues in the following categories:
 - a. Attendance
 - b. Conduct
 - c. Health and safety
 - d. Performance
5. Corrective Action processes should follow these steps:
 - a. Coaching (informal corrective action)
 - b. Verbal warning (formal)
 - c. First written warning (formal)
 - d. Final written warning with possible suspension
 - e. Termination of employment

6. The Town of Yarmouth reserves the right to skip any and all of the five-step corrective action process depending on the severity of the offence. Corrective action addressing conduct and/or health and safety are deemed to be more severe offences.
7. All categories in section 4 shall be treated jointly in the corrective action process. Disciplinary issues shall be deemed consecutive and not concurrent.

Coaching

8. Coaching is a documented process that offers the employee an opportunity to correct an issue before starting the formal corrective action process. Depending on the nature and severity of the issue or concern, this step may be skipped.
9. Coaching may include training and professional development.
10. It is the responsibility of the Management employee in cooperation with the Human Resource Coordinator to deliver coaching.

Formal Warnings

11. It is the responsibility of the Management employee in consultation with the Human Resource Coordinator to deliver warnings.

Impact of a Written Corrective Action Warning

12. Any written warning will stay in the employee's personnel file for 2 years from the last offense. After that time, the record will be cleared.
13. Any employee with a written warning will not be eligible for any salary step increment for that year.
14. Depending on the offense, they may be required to take training.

Investigation and Documentation

15. All alleged violations to the categories outlined in section 4, shall be investigated and documented by the Management employee and Human Resource Coordinator. All formal measures taken within the corrective action process shall be documented and forwarded to Human Resource Coordinator for filing in the employee's personnel file.

Administrative Leave Pending Investigation

16. If an employee is placed on administrative leave pending investigation, the employee will be notified of the decision verbally and/or in writing. The written notification shall include information on the allegations and allow the employee an opportunity to respond.
17. An employee may be placed on administrative leave arising from conduct taking place outside of work.

18. During the leave period, the employee must ensure they are available for interviews or recall to work within 24 hours. If the employee fails to make themselves available, the Town will proceed with the investigation and make a determination based on the information available.
19. Administrative leave pending investigation is intended to allow the Town time to examine issues thoroughly and to determine appropriate action. During this administrative leave and pending investigation, the employee shall be compensated at their regular rate of pay.
20. Any employee placed on administrative leave pending investigation shall not access their Town of Yarmouth email or return to the workplace unless instructed. Depending on the severity of the incident, any employee placed on administrative leave pending investigation may be asked to return any town property in their possession including keys, identification, phones, vehicles, and credit cards.
21. Employees placed on administrative leave pending investigation shall not have any work-related contact with any other town staff other than their designated town point of contact.

Termination of Employment

22. The final stage of corrective action is termination of employment. Termination of employment with the Town may occur following an employee committing violations of town policy and practices, after the steps of corrective action have been taken, or immediately following a severe violation. Final decision on termination of employment shall be made by the Chief Administrative Officer.

Repeal

23. On the effective date of the policy, Discipline Policy, November 1st, 1995, is repealed.

4.05 Joint Occupational Health and Safety

 - c. Relevance
 - d. Succession Planning Considerations
10. If financial assistance is granted, the amount will be specified and will be based upon the management employee's assessment of relative costs and benefits to the Town. This assessment shall be done in cooperation with the Human Resource Coordinator.
11. The employee and management employee shall take all possible measures to minimize disruption to the employee's work performance during training and development. This includes taking measures to minimize educational leave, and measures to minimize course work being done during working hours.
12. Granting educational leave and assistance to any employee is at the discretion of the Chief Administrative Officer. Notwithstanding employee eligibility for training, the Chief Administrative Officer reserves the right to use their absolute discretion in awarding such leave.

Return of Service Commitment

13. Employees may be required to sign a Return to Service Agreement if financial assistance is over $10,000.

4.07 Workplace Accommodation

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to provide workplace accommodation to the point of undue hardship to ensure that individuals who are able to work are not discriminated against and excluded from doing so because of a disability, or other protected characteristics.

Objectives

1. To provide an understanding of the Town of Yarmouth's obligations and responsibilities required for successful workplace accommodation.
2. To establish standards for consistent application of this policy and its related processes.
3. To provide guidance for all parties involved in workplace accommodation regarding rights, roles, and responsibilities.
4. To ensure that each person who requires workplace accommodation is considered and all applications are evaluated individually in accordance with Nova Scotia Human Rights Act and other applicable legislation.

Details

Definitions

5. For the purposes of this policy, the following definitions shall apply:
 - a. Accommodation – a temporary, one-off, or ongoing modification to an employee's regular duties, working environment and/or workload to reduce or eliminate barriers to their ability to perform their job duties and participate in the workplace due to a protected characteristic.
 - b. Barrier – a distinction, set out in a policy, practice, structure, or otherwise, that has the effect of imposing burdens, obligations, or disadvantages on an employee, or a class of employees, not imposed upon others or which withholds or limits access to opportunities, benefits, and advantages available to other employees.
 - c. Undue Hardship – occurs when an accommodation would create a substantial and unmanageable workplace burden for the Employer. Undue hardship is assessed on a case-by-case basis, as the facts of each situation are different.

Guiding Principles

6. Employees are encouraged to seek an Accommodation when they believe they are experiencing a barrier in their work environment, which may be reduced or eliminated through reasonable accommodation.

7. Accommodation requests will be considered with the principles of dignity, individualization, inclusion, and full participation.
8. Employees with an Accommodation Plan will be notified in advance of any changes that could affect the terms of their plan.
9. Workplace accommodations shall be done where possible while maintaining confidentiality and will only disclose personal information when necessary to provide the accommodation or as otherwise permitted by law.
10. Employees and Management share responsibility for planning, implementing, and monitoring accommodations.
11. In more complex requests for workplace accommodation, others may be involved, such as medical practitioners, CAO, Union Representatives, Human Resource Specialist, etc.

Request for Accommodation

12. To ensure that Accommodation needs are effectively met, employees are responsible for communicating their need for an Accommodation at the earliest possible opportunity and to participate fully in the process. Employees represented by Unions are encouraged to seek representation as early in the process as possible.
13. A request for Accommodation must be made by completing Form 4.08 Request for Workplace Accommodation and submitting it to the Management employee.
14. Town of Yarmouth recognizes that in situations where town representatives are aware, that there may be a relationship between a protected characteristic and an employee's job performance, there may be a duty on the part of the town to inquire into that possible relationship before making a decision that would affect the person adversely. This includes providing a meaningful opportunity to the employee discuss any issues that may be adversely affecting their work performance, and to discuss the potential need for an accommodation.

Assessment

15. Upon receiving a request for an accommodation, the management employee shall forward a copy of the request to the Human Resource Coordinator.
16. The management employee and Human Resource Coordinator will determine whether the request is one of the protected characteristics under the human rights legislation.
17. Where a request for accommodation requires supporting documentation to establish a need for an accommodation and/or to assist in identifying the most appropriate means of accommodating the Employee, the Human Resource Coordinator will:

- a. Engage with the employee directly to determine what, if any, documentation will be relevant to the request for the accommodation.
 - b. Work with the employee to request and obtain required information from health professionals, and upon receipt of that information, hold it in a secure manner.
 - c. Inform the management employee of the employee's functional limitations and will only share the least amount of personal information with the management employee.
18. The Town may be unable to process a request for accommodation in the absence of required supporting information.
19. Dependant on the type of request made, other Town policies may be engaged.

Consultation and Decision

20. In assessing whether an accommodation can be made without imposing undue hardship upon the Town, all relevant factors will be considered including:
- a. Accommodation sought by employee
 - b. Linkage – whether the proposed Accommodation will have the practical effect on eliminating or reducing the identified barrier
 - c. Safety – whether the proposed Accommodation would pose a safety risk to other individuals or the employee seeking accommodation
 - d. Financial Implications – whether the costs of implementing the accommodation would be prohibitive
 - e. Size and Nature of the Operation – whether the proposed accommodation would be disruptive to the Town
 - f. Adaptability – whether the workforce or facility would be adaptable enough to implement the accommodation
 - g. Provisions of a Collective Agreement – whether the proposed Accommodation would significantly interfere with the rights of other employees under the Collective Agreement
 - h. Impact on Other Employees; and
 - i. Other Possible Accommodations
21. A request for an accommodation will be considered by both the management employee and the Human Resource Coordinator, who will together decide what, if any, accommodation will be provided, and the implementation of the accommodation, while considering the factors outlined in section 20 and any other necessary consultations.
22. Notwithstanding Section 20, an employee is entitled to a reasonable Accommodation although it may not be their preferred accommodation.
23. The management employee will notify the employee of the decision, with justification, in writing to the employee requesting accommodation.
24. Where an accommodation is granted, the notification will specify the proposed accommodation to be provided and will include details around the implementation of the accommodation, the duration, and the frequency of review. This proposal shall be discussed with the employee to refine the proposal to determine the best course of action.

25. Accommodations will be periodically reviewed to determine any necessary adjustments. If the employee's circumstances change in any way that may impact any aspect of an accommodation, they will promptly notify their management employee. The employee will also respond to all inquiries for information from the management and Human Resource Coordinator within five (5) business days.
26. If an employee disagrees with an accommodation decision, they should attempt to resolve it with the Human Resource Coordinator through discussion.

4.08 Flexible Work Arrangements

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to implement flexible work arrangements for employees while maintaining a high level of service delivery and productivity for the residents of the Town.

Objectives

1. To identify flexible work options between the Town of Yarmouth and an employee where both parties agree to voluntary flexible work arrangements.
2. To provide a framework within which flexible work arrangements can be administered.

Details

3. Employees with one or more of the following characteristics may be considered:
 - a. Full-time, non-unionized employees
 - b. Good past performance appraisals demonstrating the ability to meet job expectations
 - c. Able to work independently without constant supervision from their management employee
 - d. Strong self-discipline and good time management skills
4. Flexible work arrangements will not diminish the ability of the Town of Yarmouth to assign responsibility and accountability to individual employees for the provision of services and performance of their duties.
5. Flexible work arrangements do not change the employment contract. Salary, compensation, and benefits do not differ from standard full-time employees.
6. The employee shall work the hours agreed upon and obtain approval from the management employee in advance of working any overtime.
7. The management employee shall maintain open communication, ensure that the employee's hours of work do not fall below the normal work week hours, and discuss with the employee any concerns as they arise.

Compressed Work Week

8. A compressed work week may apply to all non-unionized employees of the Town of Yarmouth. Management employees considering implementing a compressed schedule may do so subject to the eligibility, operational requirements, and approval of the Chief Administrative Officer.
9. Different forms of compressed work week schedules may be considered for Town of Yarmouth workplaces depending on operational requirements.
10. Where employees are working a compressed work week, their workplace shall be open to the public for all scheduled work hours.
11. Service to the customer must be maintained. Some services are provided by a single individual. Under a compressed work week, those services must still be available the same number of hours per week.
12. Implementation of a compressed work week will be cost neutral.
13. Employees can apply for the arrangement using the Compressed Work Week Arrangement Proposal Form and shall submit to their management employee for consideration.
14. The management employee will review proposals and consider the operational impacts of approval.
15. Management employees are encouraged to recommend approval to the CAO for employee's requests for compressed work week whenever possible to do so without compromising the organization's service levels.
16. If the proposal is approved, the employee and the management employee shall determine the start date.
17. Compressed work week arrangements shall be initiated on a trial basis and may be discontinued at any time at the request of either the employer or management employee. Units and departments reserve the right to immediately suspend the arrangement in case of unanticipated circumstances regarding employee performance or operational needs.
18. Agreements shall be time-specific with a date for review and reconsideration every two (2) years. Modifications and/or renewals shall be documented appropriately. The original shall be maintained in the employee's personnel file with copies to the employee and management employee.

Repeal

19. On the effective date of this policy, "Compressed 4-Day Work Week Policy" is repealed.

4.09 Inclement Weather and Emergency Closures

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to recognize that inclement weather may, at times, limit the availability of staff and hinder operations and services.

Objectives

1. To create protocol around Town of Yarmouth facility closures resulting from inclement weather.
2. To assign responsibility for determining closure and cancellations of Town facilities and services.
3. To clarify the responsibilities and expectations of employees in the event there is an inclement weather event.

Details

4. The decision to close Town workplaces due to inclement weather shall be made by management employee responsible for that workplace, in consultation with the Chief Administrative Officer.
5. The management employee's decision may be based on a variety of information sources, including, but not limited to:
 - a. Weather reports from Environment Canada
 - b. Accessibility to Town facilities and workplaces
 - c. Reports on road and highway conditions
 - d. Closures of schools and businesses
 - e. Consultation with other Management employees
6. Every effort shall be taken to make a decision regarding closures by 7:00am.
7. When the decision is made to close a workplace before start of business hours due to inclement weather, employees are not required to attend work that day unless their position has been pre-determined to continue working.
8. Employees not required to be at their workplace on the date of a closure will be paid at their normal rate for the period of time they were scheduled to work.
9. Any employee reporting to work during the closure will not be compensated beyond their normal rate.
10. In the event that an employee is unable to arrive to work at their scheduled start time as a result of weather conditions, the employee must make every reasonable effort to call, text, or email their supervisor before their start time to advise of the delay.
11. If an employee is unable to report to work as a result of inclement weather, but the Town workplaces remain open, the employee will be required to take vacation or time in lieu.

12. Decisions to close midday, delay opening, or to not open may be communicated via:
 - a. Post on Town of Yarmouth social media platforms and website
 - b. Announcement on local radio

4.10 Health & Wellness Policy

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to foster a healthy workplace by supporting initiatives that promote physical, mental, and social wellbeing.

Objectives

1. To improve the overall health of municipal employees and council.
2. Support employees and council to take ownership of their physical, mental and social well-being by providing opportunities to become actively involved in improving their personal health.

Details

3. The Town recognizes that a healthy workforce can decrease absenteeism, reduce sick time, reduce the occurrence of Workers Compensation claims, lower health insurance costs and improve employee satisfaction and well-being.
4. The Town will implement a Health and Wellness Committee. The Committee will include a member of the Senior Management Team and at least one volunteer from each department of the Town of Yarmouth.
 - a. The Health and Wellness Committee will:
 - i. Assess wellness needs by actively seeking input from employees.
 - ii. Develop a Workplace Wellness Program for employees to support their mental, physical and social wellbeing
 - iii. Areas of focus may include the following:
 1. Physical Health – fitness programs, healthy eating, ergonomics’
 2. Mental and Emotional Health – EAP, stress management, work-life balance
 3. Social Well-being – team building, inclusive environment
 - iv. Submit an annual wellness budget to be approved by Council.
 - v. Administer program funds, subject to the approval of the CAO.
5. Management will support and promote wellness initiatives within their departments.
6. The Health and Wellness Committee will review the program annually to assess the effectiveness and make any necessary adjustments.

SECTION 5 – STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

5.01 Employee Code of Conduct

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to promote and ensure appropriate conduct among staff, and to facilitate the fair and consistent treatment of all employees,

Objectives

1. To encourage positive employee/employer relations by providing for the fair and consistent treatment of staff throughout the Town of Yarmouth.
2. To encourage the proper conduct of Town of Yarmouth employees.
3. To ensure that all employees of the Town of Yarmouth are aware of their obligations and the consequences of disregarding those obligations.
4. To ensure that employee misconduct is dealt with in an appropriate manner.

Details

5. Town staff's primary objective is to address the needs of the residents of the Town of Yarmouth. They are entrusted with upholding and adhering to Town policies, bylaws and other applicable legislation. Staff must maintain a high standard of ethical morality and conduct to fulfill the roles and responsibilities as public servants.
6. Should a situation arise where a staff member is unsure of how to act during a situation as a Town representative, they should speak to their management employee.

Personal Conduct

7. All employees are expected to always maintain a high level of professionalism in the workplace, in public, and online.

Professional Conduct

8. Employees shall perform their duties with honesty and integrity in a manner that is helpful, respectful, and courteous.

Town Time and Assets

9. Town time and assets are used only for the performance of town duties and as approved by the management employee. Employees are required to care for town assets, including all property, equipment, software, information, materials and time.

Gifts and Gratuities

10. Employees shall not provide or receive any gift, benefit, or favour in exchange for special considerations or influence, or where it may be perceived to be in exchange for special treatment.

Personal Gain, Benefit, or Favouritism

11. Employees must remove themselves from any decision process that may result in actual or perceived personal gain, favouritism, or benefit. Processes such as awarding of tenders, job opportunities, land sales, and disposal of surplus assets will be carried out impartially – without any advantage or favouritism to themselves or others.

Use, Collection, and Disclosure of Information

12. The Town of Yarmouth will use, collect, and disclose information only in accordance with the Nova Scotia Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, and for the purposes of carrying out town duties. Staff shall only use personal, business, or financial information for the intended purposes.

Political Activity

13. Town staff shall not engage in any political activity or electioneering during normal working hours or at a Town of Yarmouth property. This includes canvassing, campaigning, or fundraising that aim to advance an individual's or group's political interests.
14. Should a town employee decide to run for elected office in government, the employee must first seek an unpaid leave of absence for the time period between the day they are nominated to voting day. Should the employee win their seat, it will be understood that the employee has resigned from employment with the town immediately before taking their elected seat.

Tobacco Use

15. Employees shall only use tobacco products or vape at designated areas on town properties.

Outside Activities

16. Employees take part in a wide range of activities outside of their employment including volunteer activities, self-employment, outside employment and services (either paid or unpaid), on boards, councils, or committees. Employees of the Town of Yarmouth may not engage in outside activity if it:
 - a. Impairs the employee's mental or physical capacity to perform Town duties
 - b. Is likely to cause criticism or embarrassment to the Town
 - c. Requires the employee's attention during official working hours or requires the use of Town time or supplies
 - d. Promotes the use of your title or position with the Town or implies an official Town endorsement of your outside employer's business, service, product, etc.
 - e. Involves working for an employer who is doing business with the Town or is likely to require inspection, permitting, or other regulation or action by the employee's work unit, unless authorized by the Chief Administrative Officer beforehand and under such terms and conditions as the Chief Administrative Officer shall establish from time to time.
 - f. Creates a perceived or real conflict of interest.

Disclosure

17. Any disclosure of a conflict of interest or unethical behaviour can be made to the Management employee or Human Resource Coordinator.

Penalty

18. Should it be determined by the Human Resource Coordinator that an employee has breached any part of this policy, that employee shall be subject to discipline up to and including termination.

5.02 Harassment and Violence Free Workplace

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to maintain a healthy, safe, and supportive workplace where all persons are treated with respect and dignity. It is the right of all employees to work in an environment free of harassment, violence, and discrimination.

Objectives

1. To set clear guidelines on what constitutes harassment and violence in the workplace at the Town of Yarmouth.

Details

Harassment

2. Harassment is any unwanted behaviour, physical, verbal, or suggested, that makes a reasonable person feel uncomfortable, humiliated, or mentally distressed and/or is related to any characteristics which are listed as prohibited grounds of discrimination in the Nova Scotia Human Rights Act.
3. Harassment can take many forms and may be directed at an individual or group of individuals and can occur in various types of communication, including face to face exchanges, email, written correspondence, or social media.
4. Examples of harassment include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Written or verbal insults;
 - b. Unwelcome remarks, jokes, or innuendoes;

 - i. Horseplay, roughhousing, inappropriate touching, or physical assault; or
 - j. Behavior, conduct, comments or activities not directed specifically at an individual, but which nonetheless create a degrading, offensive, or poisoned work environment.

5. Harassment does not include:
 - a. Legitimate, reasonable management actions that are part of the normal work function including appropriate direction, delegation, performance management, counselling, or discipline administered by a supervisor;
 - b. Professional debate;
 - c. Attendance management;
 - d. Relationships of mutual consent;
 - e. Stressful events encountered in the performance of legitimate job duties; or
 - f. Occasional disagreements or personality conflicts.

6. Sexual Harassment means:
 - a. Any sexual conduct or a course of comment that is known or ought reasonably to be known as unwelcomed;
 - b. A sexual solicitation or advance made to an individual by another where the other individual is in a position to confer a benefit on, or deny a benefit to, the individual to whom the solicitation or advance is made, where the individual making the solicitation or advance knows or ought reasonably to know that it is unwelcome; or
 - c. A reprisal or threat of reprisal against an individual for rejecting a sexual solicitation or advance.

7. Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Sexist jokes causing embarrassment or offense, told or carried out after the speaker was told they are embarrassing or offensive, or that are by their nature clearly embarrassing or offensive;
 - b. Unwelcome remarks, jokes, comments, inquiries, or innuendoes about a person's physical appearance, attire, sex, or sexual orientation;
 - c. Leering or other suggestive gestures;
 - d. The display of sexually explicit material;
 - e. Sexually degrading words used to describe a person;
 - f. Practical jokes of a sexual nature, which can cause awkwardness or embarrassment;
 - g. Unwelcomed sexual flirtations, advances, propositions;
 - h. Requests for sexual favours;
 - i. Unwanted touching; and
 - j. A threat to job security or working conditions for refusing to comply with sexual demands by a person in a position of authority.

8. Employees are entitled to work in an environment free from harassment and discrimination that is based on the prohibited grounds under Nova Scotia's Human Right Act, which includes:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Age • Race • Color • Religion • Creed • Ethnic, national, or aboriginal origin 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sex (including pregnancy and pay equity) • Sexual orientation • Physical disability • Mental disability • Family status

- Source of income
- Harassment (including sexual harassment)
- Irrational fear of contracting an illness or disease
- Political belief, affiliation, or activity
- Gender identity
- Gender expression
- Association with protected groups or individuals

9. Nova Scotia’s Human Rights Act prohibits harassment, sexual harassment, and discrimination in the areas of:

- Employment
- Housing or accommodation
- Services and facilities
- Purchase or sale of property
- Volunteer public service
- Publication, broadcasting, or advertisement
- Membership in a professional, business, or trades association, or employers’ or employees’ organization.

10. The Town of Yarmouth has zero-tolerance for, and will take reasonable and necessary steps to ensure, a workplace free from any form of harassment, sexual harassment, or discrimination.

11. Employees should follow the Employee Complaints Process Policy when they encounter inappropriate behaviour in the workplace.

5.04 Employee Complaints Process

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to have a standardized process for employees to file Human Resource related complaints.

Details

1. Complaints related to Human Resource policies can be made through a formal or informal process to ensure a range of options are available to employees and Council members to seek a fair and timely resolution to allegations.

Informal Complaint Process

2. If reasonable and safe to do so, employees should attempt to resolve issues informally through discussion before launching a formal complaint.

3. If it is not possible to carry out actions in Section 2, an employee should seek assistance from their Management employee or Human Resource Coordinator.

4. Should a Council member have a complaint regarding the Chief Administrative Officer, this Council member shall discuss the issue with the Mayor for guidance.

5. Should a Council member have a complaint regarding an employee, this Council member shall discuss the issue with the Chief Administrative Officer for guidance.
6. Should an employee have a complaint against a Council member, they shall discuss the issue with their Management employee for guidance.
7. If the informal complaint process is not suitable, or the complainant does not receive a suitable result after attempting an informal process, the employee/Councillor can proceed to the formal process.

Formal Complaint Process

8. Formal complaints may be filed in writing using the Human Resource Formal Complaint Form.
9. Employee complaints can be submitted to the Human Resource Coordinator or Chief Administrative Officer.
10. Councillor complaints can be submitted to the Mayor or Chief Administrative Officer.
11. Complaints may be made on behalf of a staff member by another staff member where that staff member has witnessed the behaviour in question.

Investigations

12. Once the Complaint Form has been received, the CAO will determine whether a formal investigation is warranted based on the nature, severity, and circumstances of the complaint. A formal investigation may be initiated where one or more of the following conditions apply:
 - a. The complaint involves allegations of harassment, discrimination, bullying, or other conduct that may violate applicable legislation or town policies;
 - b. The complaint involves a serious breach of workplace policies, codes of conduct, or ethical standards;
 - c. There is a potential risk to the health, safety, or well-being of employees, Council members, or the public;
 - d. The matter involves a significant power imbalance that would make informal resolution inappropriate;
 - e. Previous informal resolution efforts have been unsuccessful or are deemed unsuitable;
 - f. The complaint involves repeated or ongoing behaviour; or
 - g. The Town determines that the circumstances warrant a formal investigation in order to ensure a fair, thorough, and impartial review.
13. If a formal investigation is warranted, it will require interviewing various witnesses in addition to the complainant(s) and respondent(s). In some cases, the Human Resource Coordinator or Chief Administrative Officer may engage an external third party to assist with the investigation. Because of the nature of this process, the application and details cannot be anonymous, and both the complainant(s) and respondent(s) will be provided with full details of the written complaint.

14. Upon the completion of the investigation, the Human Resource Coordinator or Chief Administrative Officer will prepare a report and recommendations with a goal of bringing a resolution to the alleged behaviour. The Human Resource Coordinator will work with the parties involved to determine appropriate actions needed and will communicate the decision to both the complainant(s) and respondent(s).

Corrective Action

15. Should the investigation determine that the disrespectful behaviour involves discrimination under the Nova Scotia Human Rights Act, the complaint will be transferred to a formal application of the Corrective Action Policy.
16. Employees are strongly encouraged to bring forth any complaints as soon as possible to ensure any inappropriate behaviour is dealt with immediately.

False or Malicious Complaints

17. Any informal or formal complaint found to be false, misleading, or brought forth with malice, may result in the Complainant being subject to Corrective Action per the Corrective Action Policy.

Retaliation

18. Any employee who uses retaliation or discrimination against a co-worker or another employee because the person brought forward a complaint, or because the employee acted as a witness, gave a statement, or participated in a complaint resolution process will be considered a breach of this policy. Such breach may result in Corrective Action per the Corrective Action Policy.

Records Management

19. All information collected and obtained during an investigation into an alleged breach of this policy shall be held and retained in an employee's personnel file. Only those documents required to be divulged to other parties to settle a complaint will be shared.

5.05 Substance Abuse Prevention

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to have standard guidelines for various types of substance induced impairment by employees.

Objectives

1. To enable the Town of Yarmouth to promptly and effectively address concerns of inappropriate substance use by Town employees.
2. To provide guidelines for employees to address substance abuse and provide assistance in a non-discriminatory manner while considering the organizational priorities of the Town.

Details

3. For the purposes of this policy, the following definitions apply:
 - a. Fit for Duty – reporting for work and being able to perform assigned tasks and duties effectively and not being under the influence of any substance that causes impairment or that adversely affects the employee’s ability to perform duties in a safe and responsible way throughout their entire work shift.
 - b. Impairment – a decreased mental or physical ability or awareness that can lead to the partial or complete loss of ability to perform work tasks safely and effectively.
 - c. Substance – anything taken to change the way the body and/or mind function, impacting one’s fitness for duty, which may include:
 - i. Prescription drugs, which have been obtained without valid prescription, or are being taking not in accordance with a prescription.
 - ii. Over the counter drugs that have been taken not as directed that have impacted an employee’s fitness for duty.
 - iii. Illegal drugs
 - iv. Other substances, including alcohol and cannabis that cause impairment or intoxication.
4. Employees are expected to be fit for duty when reporting to work and remain fit for duty for the duration of the working day.
5. Employees must inform their Management employee without delay before commencing or continuing a duty if becoming unfit for duty.
6. Should an employee suspect another of impairment during regular business hours, the employee shall:
 - a. Immediately report this to the appropriate management employee
 - b. Make every reasonable effort to uphold workplace and personal safety.
7. In the event a management employee suspects an employee of impairment during regular business hours, the management employee shall:
 - a. Confidentially and discretely meet with the employee and ask them to leave the work site for the remainder of the day
 - b. Arrange for transportation when necessary
 - c. Not discuss performance or discipline while the employee is impaired
 - d. Document the incident and contact Human Resource Coordinator as soon as possible to report the incident
 - e. Participate in planning and facilitating the employee’s return to work and any corrective action measures to be taken.
8. Employees who have been sent home due to suspected impairment are expected to return to work for their next scheduled shift unless medically unable as supported with medical documentation.

5.06 Intimate & Personal Relationships Policy

Policy Statement

It shall be the policy of the Town of Yarmouth to provide guidelines for employees who have a personal or intimate relationship or considering entering an intimate relationship with a colleague, supervisor, or subordinate.

Objectives

1. To prevent conflicts of interest, maintain professionalism, and ensure that the work environment remains respectful, fair, and free from discrimination or favoritism.

Details

2. This policy applies to all employees and volunteers of the Town of Yarmouth regardless of their position or department.
3. An "intimate relationship" refers to a consensual, romantic, or sexual relationship between two individuals. This includes, but is not limited to, dating, cohabitation, engagement, or marriage.
4. A "personal relationship" includes relationships between spouses, parent/child (including stepparent/stepchild) or sibling (including a half-sibling/step sibling).
5. Employees or volunteers involved in an intimate or personal relationship with a colleague, supervisor, or subordinate are required to disclose the relationship to Human Resources.
6. No employee shall be supervised by someone with whom they are in an intimate or personal relationship. This is necessary to manage potential conflicts of interest, power dynamics, and to ensure that the relationship does not affect the workplace environment.
7. The Town may take steps to reassign one or both parties to different roles, departments, or reporting lines.
8. The disclosure must occur as soon as the relationship is recognized by either party.
9. The information provided will be treated confidentially and shared only with those who need to know for business purposes.
10. Employees are prohibited from participating in any employment decisions (e.g., hiring, promotion, performance evaluation, or disciplinary action) that affect the other party personal or intimate relationship.
11. Employees in personal or intimate relationships are expected to maintain a professional demeanor at all times while at work, including during work-related events and on Town premises.
12. Public displays of affection or any behavior that may make colleagues uncomfortable are not permitted in the workplace.

13. All disclosures made under this policy will be treated with the highest level of confidentiality. The Human Resource employee will manage the information discreetly and will only involve others, as necessary.
14. Retaliation against any employee who discloses a relationship or participates in an investigation related to this policy is prohibited. Any form of retaliation will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
15. Failure to disclose an intimate or personal relationship as required by this policy or engaging in behavior that violates this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
